

Feeling ZEN this Chinese New Year

With Three Auspicious Feasts for Family & Friends to Celebrate the Year of the Dog

(Hong Kong, 11 January 2018) Nestled in the heart of vibrant Wanchai, newly relaunched Cantonese restaurant ZEN reveals three sets of abundant Chinese New Year menus for family and friends to reunite over. Available now until 2nd March 2018, the traditional style menus include dishes with ingredients that symbolise good fortune. Ideal for group gatherings, the three 10-course set menus are priced at HK$5500, HK$6688 and HK$7788 respectively for 10-12 people*.

The first “Lucky” Menu for Chinese New Year (HK$5500) holds a number of lucky connotations and starts with Deep-fried Scallops stuffed with Shrimp Paste, a dish with a Chinese name to mark the end of the coldest part of winter and welcome in the festival of “spring”. Other highlights include the golden Roast Crispy Sesame Chicken, which is the announcement of good things to come, before ending on a sweet note of Red Bean Soup with Glutinous Dumplings to represent the family circle and togetherness.

The second “Joyful” menu (H$6688) to bring good fortune in the Year of the Dog begins with a firm favourite of Whole Suckling Pig which is barbecued to perfection and named to carry out great plans for the year to come, Grilled King Prawns in a Honey Tomato Sauce follow to bring happiness and laughter to all while the Poached Yin Yan Cabbage with Tofu Skin & Wood Fungi is served in a rich fish stock and reflects an evergreen and bright future.

The third and most premium “Prosperous” menu (HK$7788) includes both supreme dried seafood and fresh catches of the day including the signature Fried Baby Lobster coated with Golden Duck Yolk, named in Chinese in honour of health and vitality and the Double-Boiled Yin Yan Chicken Soup with Ginseng for wealth and prosperity. Guests will also be able to indulge in more seafood with the Braised Whole Abalone with Goose Web and Steamed Whole Red Spotted Garoupa in which promises good fortune to shine down this year.

The restaurant’s central location in Wanchai makes it convenient and stress-free for families to come and dine at the restaurant, with several locations for easy parking in the area and is also easily accessible by Hong Kong MTR; with Wanchai station just a 5 minute walk away.
