Regent Hotels Group Promotes Nicholas Emery to Managing Director Regent Beijing

[Taipei, Taiwan, 7th November, 2017] – Regent Hotels Group, is delighted to announce the promotion of Nicholas Emery from General Manager to Managing Director at Regent Beijing.

Nicholas Emery brings a wealth of experience having spent more than 30 years working in luxury hospitality. Nicholas Emery joined Regent Beijing as General Manager in December of 2015, following a 30-year career with Hilton International, Fairmont, Raffles, Anantara and Renaissance.

This promotion acknowledges Mr. Emery's accomplishments over the past two years and reflects his expanded role in coordinating the extensive three-year renovation program of Regent Beijing working in partnership with the owner, the Fu Wah Group.

The renovation programme at Regent Beijing began with the public and back of house areas, event space, and the restaurant Daccapo. The final stage of the renovation will be the guest rooms, creating a "hotel within a hotel" for the 120 Regent Club Rooms and Suites. This will result in an enhanced product and service experience providing tailored services and intimacy usually associated with smaller luxury hotels.

Commenting on Mr. Emery's promotion, Steven Pan, Chairman of Regent Hotels Group said, "Nicholas has transformed the commercial performance of Regent Beijing and we are now poised to transform the guest experience. Nicholas is an extraordinary leader, fostering commitment and loyalty from the entire team. We have seen outstanding performance in all metrics."

On his recent promotion, Nicholas Emery said, "I am excited to lead this new phase of development at Regent Beijing. With a supportive and visionary owner such as Fu Wah Group, we are enhancing our restaurants and bars as well as our guest room product. We aim to continue to deliver memorable experiences for our guests and ensure Regent Beijing remains a great place to work for our colleagues".
