LAST CHANCE TO RESERVE YOUR SEAT FOR WINE EDUCATION WEEK'S CHINA LAUNCH

WSET to celebrate its 50th anniversary with wine education events across China from September 9-15

WSET's Wine Education Week is almost here! Whether you're a novice or knowledgeable, mad for Merlot or puzzled by Pinot, this global event promises to be a week of wine discovery for all wine lovers. Taking place from 9-15 September 2019, Wine Education Week marks the 50th anniversary of the Wine & Spirit Education Trust (WSET), the largest global provider of wine, spirits and sake qualifications. This weeklong worldwide program celebrates the diversity, taste and culture of the world of wine, and wine lovers in China will have the opportunity to take part as well.

On September 9, Wine Education Week will kick off with events in major cities across China. In Shanghai, for instance, wine enthusiasts are invited to gather together with Wine Missionary for a cocktail reception followed by a fun and insightful education session hosted by wine expert, consultant and WSET Certified Educator Terry Xu. Mr. Xu will be sharing his valuable insights on pairing wine with food. He will be throwing in a few games and prizes for good measure as well.

Similar launch events will also be hosted by The Tasting Annex in Shenzhen and AWSEC in Guangzhou. For the rest of the week, these launches will then be followed by over 100 events hosted by WSET's approved program providers in cities across China, from Xiamen to Xi'an to Nanjing.

Full details about Wine Education Week and the events taking place throughout China can be found at <https://www.wineeducationweek.com>. For more information about WSET, please visit <http://www.WSETglobal.com>.
